

FTSE Equity Country Classification - Minimum Investable Market Capitalisation Thresholds (30 June 2020)

10 July 2020

Further to the 'FTSE Equity Country Classification Process Enhancements' announcement published in January 2020, FTSE Russell announces the updated minimum investable market capitalisation thresholds based on closing prices as of 30 June 2020 that will be applicable for Developed and Secondary Emerging markets within the FTSE Equity Country Classification process. Markets will be evaluated against the FTSE Quality of Markets and these minimum size and security count requirements as part of the FTSE Equity Country Classification September 2020 Annual Review.
