

FTSE IOB Index

Data as at: 29 May 2026

The FTSE IOB index is a market-cap weighted index designed to measure the performance of Depository Receipts (DR) trading on the London Stock Exchange's (LSE) International Order Book (IOB).

The index enables investors to gain exposure to some of the world's fastest growing markets, while trading on the IOB offers an easy and cost efficient way of investing. The IOB currently allows for direct access to securities, through depository receipts, from over 30 countries.

Depository Receipts are negotiable certificates representing ownership of a given number of a company's shares, which can be listed and traded independently from underlying securities. All DRs trading on the IOB are eligible for inclusion in the FTSE IOB Index.
