

FTSE Fixed Income Core Infrastructure Index (FFICII)

Multi-Sector | Multi-Currency

The FTSE Fixed Income Core Infrastructure Index (FFICII) is a comprehensive, broad market multi-currency index diversified across three FTSE Russell-defined infrastructure sectors. The Index is designed to reflect the performance of infrastructure debt securities worldwide, including coverage of Investment-Grade and High-Yield markets across a number of major currencies, from both corporate and quasi-government issuers. The Index covers a broad array of sectors, and sub-indices are available in any combination of currency, maturity, sector and rating.

The Index benefits from FTSE Russell's two step approach to defining "core" infrastructure, which considers both industry classification (COBS) and revenue derived from core infrastructure activities, and is aligned with the equity FTSE Core Infrastructure Index Series in both design and classification.

INDEX CONSTRUCTION

FTSE Russell defines infrastructure issuers as those that own, manage or operate structures or networks which are used for the processing or movement of goods, services, information/data, people, energy or necessities from one location to another. A detailed definition of infrastructure is available in the Index Ground Rules on www.lseg.com.

The base universe for the Index is derived from FTSE Russell's extensive fixed income market coverage, including the AUD, EUR, GBP, JPY and USD Investment-Grade markets, and CHF, EUR, GBP and USD High-Yield markets. Once the base universe is defined, FTSE Russell then applies a two-step process to identify issuers which satisfy infrastructure related criteria.

- Firstly, the base index universe is refined according to a list of eligible COBS classification sectors, selected to capture issuers consistent with the above definition of infrastructure.
- Secondly, proprietary research is undertaken to determine the percentage of each issuer's revenue derived from core infrastructure activities (see Ground Rules for a full list); these revenue percentages determine whether an issuer will be included in the core infrastructure index. The current revenue threshold from core infrastructure activities to be included in the FTSE Fixed Income Core Infrastructure Index Series is 65%.
