

Russell Australia ESG High Dividend Index

Data as at: 29 May 2026

The purpose of the Russell Australia ESG High Dividend Index is to provide an exposure to Australian equities which have demonstrated consistent commitment to environmental and social responsibility and higher governance standards. The Russell Australia ESG High Dividend Index is created using the FTSE ASFA Australia 300 Index as the parent index. Companies not listed on the ASX and which fail Responsible Investment Committee criteria are eliminated, then the methodology uses a leading global provider of ESG research to evaluate the remaining companies' relative strengths. Index constituents are re-weighted based on ESG criteria. The resulting Australia ESG High Dividend index includes approximately 25-45% of FTSE ASFA Australia 300 Index companies.
