Introduction

1.0 Introduction

1.1 This document sets out the Ground Rules for the construction and management of the FTSE4Good US Select Index. Copies of these Ground Rules are available at www.ftserussell.com.

1.2 The FTSE4Good US Select Index calculated in real time.

1.3 Capital and Total Return Indexes are available. The FTSE4Good US Select Total Return Index is calculated on an XD basis.

1.4 The FTSE4Good US Select Index has a base date of 31 October 2005 with a starting value of 100.

1.5 FTSE Russell hereby notifies users of the index that it is possible that circumstances, including external events beyond the control of FTSE Russell may necessitate changes to, or the cessation of, the index and therefore, any financial contracts or other financial instruments that reference the index or investment funds which use the index to measure their performance should be able to withstand, or otherwise address the possibility of changes to, or cessation of, the index.

1.6 Index users who choose to follow this index or to buy products that claim to follow this index should assess the merits of the index’s rules-based methodology and take independent investment advice before investing their own or client funds. No liability whether as a result of negligence or otherwise is accepted by FTSE Russell for any losses, damages, claims and expenses suffered by any person as a result of:

- any reliance on these Ground Rules, and/or
- any errors or inaccuracies in these Ground Rules, and/or
- any non-application or misapplication of the policies or procedures described in these Ground Rules, and/or
- any errors or inaccuracies in the compilation of the Index or any constituent data.

Section 2

Management Responsibilities

2.0 Management Responsibilities

2.1 FTSE International Limited (FTSE)

2.1.1 FTSE is the benchmark administrator of the index.

2.1.2 FTSE is responsible for the daily calculation, production and operation of the Index and will:

- maintain records of the index weightings of all constituents;
- make changes to the constituents and their weightings in accordance with the Ground Rules;
- carry out the periodic reviews of the index and apply the changes resulting from the reviews as required by the Ground Rules;
- publish changes to the constituent weightings resulting from their ongoing maintenance and the periodic reviews;
- disseminate the index.

2.2 Amendments to these Ground Rules

2.2.1 These Ground Rules shall be subject to regular review by FTSE Russell to ensure that they continue to best reflect the aims of the index. Any proposals for significant amendments to these Ground Rules will be subject to consultation with FTSE Russell advisory committees and other stakeholders if appropriate. The feedback from these consultations will be considered by the FTSE Russell Product Governance Board before approval is granted.

2.2.2 As provided for in the Statement of Principles for FTSE Russell Equity Indexes, where FTSE Russell determines that the Ground Rules are silent or do not specifically and unambiguously apply to the subject matter of any decision, any decision shall be based as far as practical on the Statement of Principles. After making any such determination, FTSE Russell shall advise the market of its decision at the earliest opportunity. Any such treatment will not be considered as an exception or change to the Ground Rules, or to set a precedent for future action, but FTSE Russell will consider whether the Ground Rules should subsequently be updated to provide greater clarity.
Section 3

FTSE Russell Index Policies

3.0 FTSE Russell Index Policies

These Ground Rules should be read in conjunction with the following policy documents which can be accessed using the links below:

3.1 These Ground Rules should be read in conjunction with the FTSE Global Equity Index Series Ground Rules.

3.2 Statement of Principles for FTSE Russell Equity Indexes (the Statement of Principles)

Indexes need to keep abreast of changing markets and the Ground Rules cannot anticipate every eventuality. Where the Rules do not fully cover a specific event or development, FTSE Russell will determine the appropriate treatment by reference to the Statement of Principles which summarises the ethos underlying FTSE Russell’s approach to index construction. The Statement of Principles is reviewed annually and any changes proposed by FTSE are presented to the FTSE Russell Policy Advisory Board for discussion before approval by the FTSE Russell Product Governance Board.

The Statement of Principles can be accessed using the following link:

Section 6

Periodic Review of Constituents

6.0 Periodic Review of Constituents

6.1 The FTSE4Good US Select Index is reviewed quarterly in March, June, September, and December using data as at the close of business on the Monday 4 weeks prior to review effective date.

Any constituent changes resulting from the quarterly reviews will be implemented after the close of business on the third Friday (i.e. effective from the open on the following Monday) of March, June, September and December.
Section 7

Changes to Constituent Companies

7.0 Changes to Constituent Companies

7.1 Removal and Replacement

7.1.1 If a constituent of the Index ceases to be a constituent of the Universe Index it will be removed from the Index. The removal will be concurrent with its removal from the Universe Index. Constituents removed from the Index are not replaced between reviews.

7.2 New Issues

7.2.1 All new entrants (either fast entries or normal review entries) to the Index Universe will be eligible to join the Index following the completion of an assessment of the new entrant against the index qualification criteria set out in Section 5.

7.3 Mergers and Takeovers

7.3.1 Following corporate events new corporate entities will be considered at the review following the completion of an assessment of the new entity against the index qualification criteria set out in Section 5.

7.3.2 In the case of a takeover or merger between existing Index constituents, the resulting new company will be eligible for inclusion in the Index.

7.3.3 In the case of a non-constituent taken over by an Index constituent, the resultant entity will remain eligible for inclusion in the Index. The eligibility of the resultant entity will be assessed in full at the review following the completion of an assessment of the new entity against the index qualification criteria set out in Section 5.

7.3.4 In the case of a constituent taken over by a non-constituent, the resultant entity will not be eligible for inclusion in the Index. The eligibility of the resultant entity will be assessed in full at the review following the completion of an assessment of the new entity against the index qualification criteria set out in Section 5.

7.3.5 In the case of a reverse-take over, the eligibility of the resultant entity will be dependent of the status of the dominant company within the merger/acquisition.

7.3.6 In the case of a demerger of an Index constituent the resultant companies will be classified as eligible and remain eligible for inclusion in the Index. The eligibility of the resulting companies will be assessed in full at the review following the completion of an assessment of the new entity against the index qualification criteria set out in Section 5.
