Introduction

1.0 Introduction

1.1 This document sets out the Ground Rules for the construction and management of the FTSE Fair Value Indexes calculated by FTSE International Limited (FTSE). Copies of these Ground Rules are available from FTSE Russell.

1.2 The FTSE Fair Value Indexes have been designed to reflect updates to the fair value of securities in markets that have closed prior to the index calculation point.

1.3 These Ground Rules should be read in conjunction with the FTSE index Ground Rules for the underlying FTSE indexes, which are available at www.ftserussell.com.

1.4 The FTSE Fair Values Indexes do not take account of ESG factors in their index design.

1.5 Price and Total Return Indexes will be calculated in USD (other currencies are available) on an end of day basis.

The Total Return Indexes include income based on ex dividend adjustments. All dividends are applied as declared in the FTSE Total Return Index.

A net of tax Total Return index will also be calculated.

1.6 FTSE Russell

1.7 FTSE Russell hereby notifies users of the index series that it is possible that circumstances, including external events beyond the control of FTSE Russell, may necessitate changes to, or the cessation, of the index series and therefore, any financial contracts or other financial instruments that reference the index series or investment funds which use the index series to measure their performance should be able to withstand, or otherwise address the possibility of changes to, or cessation of, the index series.
1.8 Index users who choose to follow this index series or to buy products that claim to follow this index series should assess the merits of the index series rules-based methodology and take independent investment advice before investing their own or client funds. No liability whether as a result of negligence or otherwise is accepted by FTSE Russell (or any person concerned with the preparation or publication of these Ground Rules) for any losses, damages, claims and expenses suffered by any person as a result of:

- any reliance on these Ground Rules, and/or
- any errors or inaccuracies in these Ground Rules, and/or
- any non-application or misapplication of the policies or procedures described in these Ground Rules, and/or
- any errors or inaccuracies in the compilation of the index series or any constituent data.

Section 6

Index Calculation

6.0 Index Calculation

6.1 Calculation Frequency

6.1.1 The FTSE Fair Value Indexes will be calculated on an end of day basis using WM/Reuters rates.

6.2 Index Calculation

6.2.1 The number of shares in issue for each constituent security will be the number used in the underlying benchmark index.

6.2.2 The FTSE Fair Value Index Series is calculated using the following formula:

\[ \sum_{i=1}^{N} \left( p_i \times e_i \times s_i \times f_i \right) \]

Where,

- \( i=1,2,\ldots,N \)
- \( N \) is the number of securities in the index.
- \( p_i \) is the fair value price of the component security (or the price at the close of the index on the calculation day).
- \( e_i \) is the exchange rate required to convert the security’s currency into the index’s base currency. WM/Reuters 16:00 EST rates are used for the calculation.
- \( s_i \) is the number of shares in issue used by FTSE Russell for the security, as defined in these Ground Rules.
- \( f_i \) is the Investability Weighting Factor to be applied to a security to allow amendments to its weighting, expressed as a number between 0 and 1, where 1 represents a 100% free float. This factor is published by FTSE Russell for each security in the underlying index.
- \( d \) is the divisor, a figure that represents the total issued share capital of the benchmark index at the base date. The divisor can be adjusted to allow changes in the issued share capital of individual securities to be made without distorting the benchmark index.
