Overview

Investors are increasingly seeking to invest in companies that align with their values. One approach to accomplishing this objective is to remove certain companies from a portfolio based on the impact of their products on society and the environment.

The FTSE Developed ex Australia ex Non-Renewable Energy/Vice Products/Weapons Index, which is part of the FTSE Global Choice Index Series, is a market capitalization weighted index that removes companies involved in fossil fuels, nuclear power, adult entertainment, alcohol, gambling, tobacco, and weapons.

Benefits

The FTSE Developed ex Australia ex Non-Renewable Energy/Vice Products/Weapons Index helps align values with investment objectives by screening out companies with exposure to products that may have a negative impact on the environment or society.
