

Reclassification of Iceland FAQ - update

17 November 2022

Further to the FTSE Equity Country Classification March 2022 Interim Update published on 01 April 2022 that confirmed the reclassification of Iceland from Frontier to Secondary Emerging market status, FTSE Russell announces that the reclassification of Iceland will be implemented in three equal tranches commencing in conjunction with the FTSE Global Equity Index Series (GEIS) semi-annual review in September 2022.

An updated version of the Iceland FAQ (a new question 7 has been added detailing the treatment of IPOs at the December 2022 index review) is available via the following link: Reclassification of Iceland to Secondary Emerging Market Status
