

Tokyo Stock Exchange Market Restructuring: Indicative Impact of Newly Eligible Securities

20 January 2023

Further to the index treatment notice regarding the Tokyo Stock Exchange market restructuring, FTSE Russell hereby provides an indicative impact of the newly eligible securities within the FTSE GEIS Japan Indices.

In this analysis,

- Newly eligible securities are defined as non-constituents transitioning to the Prime or Standard Market segments from a previously ineligible segment (e.g. JASDAQ and Mothers) since the restructuring effective date of 04 April 2022.
- These securities were screened for the minimum three-month trading period screen and size screen based on the FTSE Global Equity Index Series December 2022 Quarterly Inclusion Levels. No other screens were applied to this indicative list for this analysis.
- Data is as of 30 December 2022.

	FTSE Japan All Cap Index	FTSE Japan Index	FTSE Japan Small Cap Index
Number of Additions	22	6	16
% Index Impact (One-Way)	0.46%	0.27%	2.38%

Please note the final changes will be published in conjunction with the FTSE Global Equity Index Series March 2023 semi-annual announcement, scheduled for 17 February 2023.
