Light & Wonder Inc: Nationality Change

Informative Notice

22 August 2025

FTSE Russell notes the announcement by Lights & Wonder Inc (USA, 2919290, GEIS Small Cap, RAFI, Russell RAFI, Global Factor, Russell EW) relating to the voluntary delisting of its shares from The NASDAQ Stock Exchange. The company will remain listed on the Australian Stock Exchange whereby shareholders will be able to trade their existing shares. Lights & Wonder Inc will be assigned a FTSE nationality of Australia and placed within the appropriate indices. The listing change is expected to occur at the end of November 2025, subject to necessary regulatory approvals.

Based on the current timetable, FTSE Russell anticipates the following index treatment:

On the effective date (to be announced):

FTSE Russell will affect a nationality change from USA to Australia within the Global Equity Index Series (and associated indices). Based on its market capitalization, Light & Wonder will sit above the exclusion threshold for the Asia Pacific region of FTSE GEIS Large Cap, and therefore the company will be transferred to Large Cap. The removal of the US listing and the addition of the Australian listing will be implemented using the last close prices from the respective markets, if available.

FTSE Russell will issue further notices in due course.
