

Ezion Holdings (Singapore) : Stock Suspension Update Treatment in FTSE Indices

06 December 2017

Further to the notice issued on 08 November 2017 regarding the suspension of Ezion Holdings (Singapore, 6286064), it remains suspended pending discussions on company financing and capitalisation structuring.

In conjunction with the Section 4.18 Suspended Companies of FTSE Russell Corporate Actions and Events Guide, if the suspension period reaches 80 business days, FTSE Russell will provide notice that the company will be removed at zero value at the index review immediately following the expiry of a minimum 40 business day notice period.

Therefore, Ezion Holdings is expected to be removed at zero value at the index review in March 2018, if it does not resume trading before the Wednesday before the first Friday of March 2018 (i.e. 28 February 2018).

FTSE will continue to monitor the case and review the company's eligibility for index inclusion pending further information.
