

Further to the FTSE Global Equity Index Series Developed Europe Regional Index notice - Amendment released on 26 August 2020:

FTSE Russell has considered comments from index users on the proposed addition of S4 Capital (UK, BFZZM64) to the Small Cap component of the FTSE Global Equity Index Series (GEIS), scheduled for the September 2020 semi-annual review.

S4 Capital trades on the "SETSqx" segment of the main market on the London Stock Exchange; however only securities trading on "SETS" have previously been included within the FTSE Global All Cap and associated indexes.

As a result, the addition of S4 Capital to the FTSE Global Small Index at the September 2020 semi-annual review is retracted.

FTSE Russell will review the eligibility of SETSqx as an eligible market segment and clarify the ground rules in due course.

All other details remain unchanged. A full amended version can be accessed via the link below.
