

FTSE Russell Quarterly Review Changes Suspended Stocks - September 2020

07 September 2020

The quarterly review changes for the attached list of securities effective from the open Monday 21 September 2020 have been reversed based on stock suspension on 4 September 2020. Reversed changes include any index additions and deletions, investability weight, shares in issue, and capping factor changes. In accordance with the rule, the changes will generally be implemented with five days' notice after the review effective date, at the earliest, upon resumption of trade.

Changes can be accessed via the attachment below:
