Russia – Ukraine Related Sanctions – Update (24 February 2022)

24 February 2022

Further to the “Russia Ukraine Related Sanctions Informative Notice” published on 22 February 2022, FTSE Russell confirms that none of the current index constituents of the FTSE Russell Equity Indices fall within the scope of the sanctions imposed on Russian individuals and entities by the United Kingdom (UK) and the United States of America (USA) on 22 February 2022. FTSE Russell has also evaluated the sanctions announced by the European Council Council of the European Union (EU) on 23 February 2022 and confirms that none of the current index constituents of the FTSE Russell Equity Indices fall within the scope of these EU sanctions.

FTSE Russell is currently reviewing the sanctions announced by the UK on 24 February 2022 and continues to evaluate the impact of sanctions on the FTSE Russell Fixed Income Indices and will provide an update in due course.

FTSE Russell will continue to monitor the situation and would be pleased to receive continued feedback from index users and other stakeholders on the content of this and previous related notices. Should new information come to light that would cause FTSE Russell to alter its proposed course of action, a subsequent notice will be published.

For additional information please refer to FTSE Russell’s treatment of sanctions as detailed in the Index Policy in the Event Clients are Unable to Trade a Market document, and the historical treatment of sanctioned index constituents as detailed in the FTSE Russell Treatment of Sanctioned Index Constituents document.
